

This document contains key information you should know about Series I(US$) of PIMCO Diversified Multi-Asset Fund (Canada). You can find more detailed information in the fund's simplified prospectus. Ask your representative for a copy, or contact PIMCO Canada Corp. at 1-866-341-3350 or visit www.pimco.ca.

Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

The fund is an alternative mutual fund. It is permitted to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for other types of mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate the fund from other types of mutual funds include: increased use of derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes; increased ability to sell securities short; and the ability to borrow cash to use for investment purposes. While these strategies will be used in accordance with the fund's investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

What does the fund invest in?

The fund primarily invests in equity and equity-related securities, fixed income instruments, currencies, commodity-related instruments and property-related instruments. The fund intends to use leverage. The leverage may be created through the use of derivatives, cash borrowings and short sales. The fund's leverage must not exceed three times the fund's net asset value. The leverage will be calculated in accordance with the methodology prescribed by securities laws, or any exemptions therefrom.

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with a higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

PIMCO Canada Corp. has rated the volatility of this fund as low to medium.

Because this is a new fund, the risk rating is only an estimate by PIMCO Canada Corp. Generally, the rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Series I(US$) units of the fund have performed over the past calendar years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This section tells you how the Series I(US$) units of the fund have performed. However, this information is not available because the fund is new.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for the Series I(US$) units of the fund in a 3-month period. However, this information is not available because the fund has been offering Series I(US$) units for less than twelve consecutive months.

Average return

This section shows the value and annual compounded rate of return of a hypothetical $1,000 investment in Series I(US$) units of the fund. However, this information is not available because the fund is new.

Who is the fund for?

Investors who:

- are looking for a diversified multi-asset fund
- are seeking medium-to-long term total return
- can accept the risk and volatility of a portfolio investing predominantly in and allocating dynamically across global equity and fixed income markets

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series I(US$) units of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other series, funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges – Series I(US$) units are no load. That means that there is no payment made by PIMCO Canada to your representative when you buy Series I(US$) units of the fund. There is also no sales charge when you redeem or switch Series I(US$) units. Your representative may charge you a sales commission or other fee when you buy, switch or redeem Series I(US$) units.

2. Fund Expenses You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns. The fund's expenses are made up of the management fee, operating expenses and trading costs. No management fee is charged to the fund for Series I(US$). As this fund is new, operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

More about the trailing commission

For Series I(US$) units, PIMCO Canada does not pay any trailing commission to your registered representative.

3. Other Fees – You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Management fee	Management fees for Series I(US$) units of the fund are negotiated and paid directly by the investor, not by the fund, and will not exceed the Series A(US$) management fees of the fund (1.95%).
Short-term trading fee	2% if a redemption occurs within 30 days of purchase or switch.
Switch fees	Up to 2% may be charged to you and retained by your representative.
Returned cheques	There will be a $35 fee for Non-Sufficient Fund cheques that are returned if there are insufficient funds in your account to pay for your units.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
